

TRAIN THE TRAINER

The Engaging Trainer will change the way you think, facilitate and train. Training Leadership Consulting's (TLC's) objective is to develop better learning facilitators. This highly interactive programme introduces learners to the latest techniques in adult learning methods. It combines cutting edge theories on how adults learn and how to be a highly effective facilitator with the use of videotaped practical sessions and personal coaching. This is a must for anyone who is facilitating anything from meetings to training. This course focuses on the facilitator's ability, confidence and motivation in delivering facilitated sessions more effectively.
